CAMPING IN DEPOT.

The Mother and Child Wait Five Days in Vain For the Father.

Paducah, Ky.—Penniless and thinly lad, Mrs. Sallie Crenshaw is camping in the Illinois Central railroad depot here, patiently waiting for her husband to arrive from Carbondale, Ill., less than 100 miles distant. She has been here five days, her seven-year-old son by her side, and although the authorities have failed to locate the husband, she still believes he has not forgotten her.

Mrs. Crenshaw came to Paducah from Carbondale, where her husband was employed. He sent mother and child away, promising to come the next day. She ran out of funds, and stitches of the depot have furnished lodging. But she refused to accept lodging, sleeping on a bench.

TEN MILLIONS

Will Be Added to the Stock of Cumberland Telephone Company.

Hopkinsville, Ky.—At a meeting of stockholders of the Cumberland Telephone & Telegraph Co., this evening the home office of the company, which is incorporated under Kentucky laws, the old board of directors was elected with the exception of N.
Baxter, Jr., of Nashville, who was succeeded by John W. Barr, of Louisville, resident of the Fidelity Trust Co. The vacancy caused by the death of George R. Knox was filled by the election of W. N. Bransford, of Nashville.
To meet the demands of the growth of the business and to acquire new properties an increase in capital stock from $20,000,000 to $30,000,000 was authorized.

ICE BROKE IN THE POND

And Three Little Children of the Widow Were Drowned.

Morgantown, Ky.—Few women have been visited with misfortune in such a severe degree as Mrs. Florida Lar-man, who lives on the outskirts of the city. Only a short time ago she lost her husband. She has now lost all of her three children at once. The tots, aged three, four and five years respectively, were playing on the ice of a small pond during her absence in town, where she helped to prepare dinner for a family, when the ice broke through. Their cries were heard by neighbors, but they came too late to save the lives of the little ones.

FIVE RAILROADERS

Residing in a Kentucky Town Killed Within Thirty Days.

Lexington, Ky.—Claude Marshall, who was killed in the explosion of a boiler at Colby, Ky., was the last of five railroad men of the little town of Sadieville to be killed in railway accidents in the last 30 days. The others were: Jas. Sullivan, conductor on the Louisville & Fulton railroad; Will Sherritt, engineer on the Q. & C. railroad; Will Covington, conductor on the Southern Pacific, in Oregon; and Jas.
Kaley, conductor on the O. & M., in Ohio.

Killed By a Car.

Newport, Ky.—Randolph Reuser, son of ex-Circuit Clerk A. L. Reuser, was struck by a car and fatally injured near his home on East Third street.
He alighted from an east-bound car and walked directly in front of a westbound car going at a good rate of speed. He was thrown some distance and was rendered unconscious, and was taken to his home, where Drs.
Stine and Phyllis attended him. An examination developed that his skull was fractured.

Death Due To Heart Disease.

Covington, Ky.—Anton Graber, aged about 38, died suddenly at a local bowling alley. When the porter, George Irwin, went on duty he heard a peculiar noise. Going to the room, he found Graber on the floor in a dying condition and notified Dr. Nelson. By the time the physician arrived Graber had died. Coroner W. W. Tarvin was notified and held an inquest. He declared that death was due to heart disease.

Kentucky's Oldest.

Louisville, Ky.—The body of "Uncle Jackson" Hines, who was 106 years old, was taken to Brandenburg for burial. "Uncle Jackson" yielded to senility while on a visit to his daughter, Belle Wimp. He was the oldest negro in Kentucky and probably the state's oldest native. He was the father of 15 children. His mother died 25 years ago at the age of 110 years.

"Dry" Districts Barred To Brewer.
Frankfort, Ky.—The court of appeals, in affirming the case of the Lexington Brewing Co. vs. the Commonwealth, from Boyle county, decided that a manufacturer can not sell intoxicating liquor in a local option district.

Unknown Are Two Victims.

Middlesboro, Ky.—Two men were killed in a wreck on the L. & N. at Wasioto. A freight was derailed and nine box cars demolished. The bodies of two unidentified white men have been recovered. The men are supposed to have been stealing a ride.

Sentenced For Two Years.

Campton, Ky.—Richard Watkins, of Breathitt county, who has been a fugitive for some time, was captured and tried in the circuit court, on the charge of cattle stealing and given two years in the penitentiary.

HUNTING FOR TROUBLE.

"I've lived in California 20 years and am still hunting for trouble, in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains or a case of piles that Bucken's Arnica Salve won't quickly cure," writes Charles Walters, of Allegheny, Sierra county. No use hunting, Mr. Walters; it cures every case. Guaranteed by all druggist 25.

LETTER WRITTEN

By Mrs. Shropshire Threatened Her Competitors, Who Caused Her Arrest.

Lexington, Ky.—Mrs. Mary Shropshire, handsome and cultured, wife of A. P. Shropshire, the noted breeder of Berkshire hogs at Centerville, Bourbon county, was arrested at Paris on charges of breach of the peace and attempted coercion of extortion. County Judge Dennis Dandridge fixed her bond at $5,000, and she was compelled to sit in his office until 7 o'clock before a bondsman was secured.

Two years ago Mrs. Shropshire sold out a business she had conducted at Paris and in less than a year bought it back, paying an advance of $1,200.
Jerry Sullivan and G. R. Burberry who were her competitors, Mrs. Shropshire alleges, unduly persuaded her to sell, and since repurchasing she has suffered unjust competition.

As a result she has made frequent demands on them for money; she alleges she has lost, and, it is said, addressed a letter to Sullivan and Burberry demanding $500 each, and, M. J. said, threatening, if the money was not sent her, to enforce her demand at the point of a revolver. Financial reverses are thought to have unbalanced her mind.

RODE ON ENGINE PILOT

And Crowded at Every Station as the Flyer Stopped.

Glasgow, Ky.—The people along the L. C. railroad witnessed a rare sight as the fast passenger train passed through the stations. On the pilot engine No. 101 sat a rooster, evidently enjoying a ride. When the train stopped at a station his highness would stand up and crow as if to announce the arrival, and when the train started he would sit down and busy himself in keeping on his perch. He was finally dislodged by Gold King, the dependent at Cecilina. It is not known how far the rooster beat his way, but for the present he will help to increase the barnyard population of M.
King.

FRAUD INDICTMENTS

Have Been Returned By Grand Jur.
Against 399 Voters in Lexington.

Lexington, Ky.—By returning 55 additional indictments against persons accused of fraudulent registration, the Payette county grand jury has placed 399 alleged illegal voters of this circuit under indictment. This number constitutes one-twelfth of the entire registered democratic vote last October.
The names of the alleged fraudulent voters were furnished to the grand jury by Attorney T. E. Forman, a member of the advisory board of J. T. Wilkerson, the defeated candidate for the democratic nomination for mayor.

DEFIED PARENTS.

Mountains and Sleets Storms. Youthful Lovers Walked 40 Miles To Wed.

Whitesburg, Ky.—Ransom Sexton, aged 17 years, and Cora Flannery, barely 13 years of age, fled 40 miles on foot across the Cumberland and Black mountains through a storm of sleet to Whitesburg, where they were married by Elder John A. Craft.

Sexton's love for the girl began in school, near Tacoma, Va. Their amours became so pronounced that the teacher dismissed them. It is said then their parents sought to take a hand, but the young lovers eluded them and started on their long journey to be wedded.

STOOD IN HIS LIGHT,

So the Annoyed Gambler Shot a Hole Through Kinkaid.

Middlesboro, Ky.—Turk Kinkaid was shot and killed by John Haddock at the Pork Ridge mines. It is said that Haddock was playing in a very interesting game of "craps" and Kinkaid was standing before the light, so Haddock could not see. After telling Kinkaid several times to move out of the light Haddock shot him, killing him instantly. Haddock fled to the mountains.

Lumber Dealers Elect.

Louisville, Ky.—Officers were elected by the Kentucky Retail Lumber Dealers' association. President L. N.
Combs, of Lexington, having declined re-election, was succeeded by C. W.
Roark, of Greenville. George L. Tomlinson, of Winchester, was elected vice president to succeed Mr. Roark, while J. C. Row Taylor, secretary, and Henry Koehler, treasurer, of this city, were unanimously re-elected.

Pioneer's Fatal Slip.

Sergeant, Ky.—Mr. John Day, aged 70, a pioneer of this county, while walking across Frank's creek on a fence rail slipped and fell to his death.
He was a gallant officer during the civil war.

Will Be Hanged at Russellville.

Bowling Green, Ky.—W. R. Fletcher, and Guy Lyon, who have been in jail since May, 1905, charged with assault upon Mary Gladden, were taken to Russellville, where they will be hung on the 15th for this crime. It will be a double execution.

Wrecked the Commissary.

Middlesboro, Ky.—An explosion of two thousand and five hundred pounds of powder used in railroad construction wrecked the commissary of the Popular Lignite Coal Co., at Cheno.
Damage, $2,300.

Nothing will relieve indigestion that is not a thorough digestant.
Kodol digests what you eat and allows the stomach to rest—recuperate—grow strong again. Kodol is a solution of digestive acids and as-possible approximates the digestive juices that are found in the stomach. Kodol takes the work of digestion off the digestive organs and while performing the work itself does greatly assist the stomach to a thorough rest. In addition the ingredients of Kodol are such as to make it a corrective of the highest efficiency and by its action the stomach is restored to its normal activity and power. Kodol is manufactured in strict conformity with the National Pure Food and Drug Law Sold by Chas. C. Davis, leading druggist.

ROOSEVELT LIKES SILER.

A. T. Siler, railroad commissioner of Kentucky, is a man after the heart of Theodore Roosevelt and his associates in the national administration. The effective work done by Mr. Siler in Kentucky has not escaped attention here and it is not putting it too strongly to say that the President and the members of the Interstate Commerce Commission will be very well satisfied to re elect Mr. Siler. Comparatively few men are fitted for railroad commissioners and Siler seems to be one of the few.—Louisville Post
